Ald. Murphy invites residents to public safety focused community engagement session

Alderman Michael J. Murphy invites residents to a community engagement listening session on Saturday, October 29th focused on the Milwaukee Police Department's Community Oriented Policing engagement plan.

The alderman said citizens can attend on Saturday, October 29 at Neeskara Elementary School in the 10th Aldermanic District, 1601 W. Hawley Rd. from 10:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m. "Police-community relations and communication from members of the community to MPD – and vice versa – have never been more important, and I strongly encourage residents to attend Saturday's session and provide valuable input," Alderman Murphy said.

The meeting is being hosted by the Community Collaborative Commission and will feature a solution-driven, facilitated discussion on the development of the Community Oriented Policing engagement plan. The Milwaukee Police Department, Fire & Police Commission, Office of Violence Prevention, and the Community Collaborative Commission are working together to gather public input in a city-wide listening session process.
